1. This is a petition impugning the issuance of order of process which has been confirmed by the revisional Court. The point which is raised is that the cheque was dis-honoured on the ground that the bank account was attached. This was a mistake by the bank as in fact the bank account has not attached. Reliance is placed upon some reply to the notice given on behalf of the bank. These are all questions of fact which will have to be gone into at the time of trial. No account is produced to show that sufficient balance was there in the bank account when the cheque was dis-honoured. In my view, there is no substance in the petition. Petition is dismissed.
